

Dear All,

Following my previous email, there are several updates:

1. The two-session lists have been modified slightly based on some of your feedbacks. Also, we added student travel award recipients to the lists. If you cannot find your name on either list, please let me know at your earliest via tangxy@sustech.edu.cn.

2. For those who want to have your spouse attend our Gala Dinner together, you can go to MICCAI online to purchase additional Gala Dinner tickets. Please kindly remind me after you purchase additional tickets.

Let me know if there is any question or confusion.

Sincerely,

Xiaoying Tang
